

This is how you practice for school with your child
in German and in your family language:

Preparation:

- Find a quiet place together with your child.
- A quiet atmosphere is important for learning.
- The school materials are placed on the table.
- Your child shows you the assignments.
- Is there a school notice booklet? Check it daily.

Afterwards:

- Is the school bag packed and tidy?
- Are all materials there?
- Show your child that you enjoy how well it is learning.
- Appreciate its work!
- Check the school homepage regularly with your child.

Don't forget:

- Learning needs peace and time.
- Learning needs success. Support your child in this!
- Learning should be fun.
- Your child should read aloud for 10 minutes a day.

You practice daily with your child for school:

1. Your child needs a quiet place to work in. Sit down with it.
2. When your child talks about its school day, listen to it.
3. Your child explains all the daily assignments to you. Make sure you are fully informed: Ask questions.
4. When practicing, it reads out loud and slowly all the letters, words and sentences from its tasks in German. Translate into your language together.
5. Your child shows you the completed tasks. Compliment your child.
6. More tips: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- On a daily basis name things in German and in your family language:<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>➤ colours, people and objects</li><li>➤ food</li><li>➤ objects in traffic</li><li>➤ body parts, clothing, etc.</li></ul></li><li>- write a shopping list</li><li>- describe pictures</li></ul>
Let your child read the German words out loud over and over again when you are out together.
